Item #20—Tax Refunds/Abatements.
None

Item #21—Transfers.
None.

Item #22—Correspondence.
Check Register.
Letter from Town Counsel, Rich Buturla regarding an advisory question on an adjourned Town Meeting ballot.
Letter from Kurt Miller describing a change to the 2013/2014 Budget Packets.

Item #23—Public Comment.
Al Yagovane, 25 Elaine Drive: Memorial Day is coming quickly and funds are desperately needed to keep the parade going in future years. They are short on funds and need donations to keep going in 2014. Broad Street Park is moving forward and should be complete by August 18, 2013. Engraved bricks will begin getting placed in the next couple of weeks.

Mike Flynn, 85 Skokorat Street: The area only has one grocery chain and needs another. Save A lot or Price Right could be a good fit for the area.

Item #24—Selectmen’s Public Comments.
Theresa Conroy: Asked if the tax abatement provided to the fire and ambulance workers taxed on the savings they receive. Kurt Miller stated yes, he would look into if the tax could be avoided. Asked if a committee will be put together for the Greenway Project. Kurt Miller stated yes, when plans are further outlined. Requested a copy of the Economic Development Director job description be sent to the Board of Selectmen.

Al Bruno: The Board of Selectmen has inherited a mess with the roads from previous administrations. The town has pot holes and garbage, it is in need of a spring clean-up. Dennis Rozum stated clean-up has begun. Derby Avenue has been completed today. Requested a copy of the Pot Hole Log Report. Kurt Miller stated he would provide the report and reminds the Board of Selectmen the Public Works department will be short staffed for the next couple of months.

Nicole Klarides-Ditria: The entrance to Public Works appears messy with dirt and piles. There is a plow and a pile of bricks visible. Dennis Rozum stated he will clean-up area but there is not much room for storage of plows.
Annmarie Drugonis: Asked the status of Quarterly Reports. Kurt Miller stated reports would be emailed on Wednesday April 3, 2013. Upon reviewing other committee meetings she noticed several committees stated personnel matters when entering executive session and do not clearly define the reason like the Board of Selectmen do. Kurt Miller stated FOI training has been offered and all boards are required to follow Robert’s Rules of Order.

Gary Bruce: There will be a testimonial at Colonial Tavern on April 13, 2013 in honor of Tom Tomasheski. Thanks to Tom for a job well done as Chief.

Item #25—Adjournment.
