Item #1—Call meeting to order.
First Selectman, W. Kurt Miller called the meeting to order at 7:02pm.

Item #2—Pledge of Allegiance.
Everyone saluted the Flag and recited the Pledge of Allegiance.

Item #3—Public Comment.
None.

Item #4—First Selectman’s Report.
Attended a CCM legislative lunch to discuss the Governor’s proposed budget with other town officials. All agreed the proposed budget is not in the best interest of the town and cities. There is a strong, unified concern over the effects of the removal of the car tax on municipalities. The Town of Seymour would lose close to $3.4 million. Kurt Miller is drafting a letter for the Board of Selectmen to review at the March 19, 2013 meeting with Shaye Roscoe with the Boys and Girls Club focusing on bringing the program into Seymour. Attended the Region 2 Emergency Planning Meeting in Guilford.

Continued work on union contracts with Department of Public Works, Town Hall Administrators and Town Hall Clerks. Renegotiating the contract with the Strand Theatre is continuing with discussions with Culture and Arts, The Knights of Columbus and the Walnut Hill Church. Met with DOT on discussions on the next step for the Rotary project for 2015.

Item #8—Discussion and update on Blizzard Charlotte
Thomas Eighmie reviewed the debrief with department heads regarding Blizzard Charlotte.

Motion to add to the agenda discussion on update from the Blight Officer.
Motion: Al Bruno  Second: Annmarie Drugonis
Yes: 7 No: 0 0: Abstain

Michael Morganski, Blight Officer, asked the Board of Selectmen to consider his recommendations for changes to the Blight Ordinance. Discussed the need for a sub-committee for resident appeals of the inspector’s findings. Michael Morganski would like to establish one flat rate fine of $99 per day instead of the sliding scale currently in place. Of the twelve complaints since December 2012, most are not legitimate or unfounded. There are three or four legitimate concerns and Michael Morganski is working with the Town Clerk’s Office to receive updated information on foreclosed properties.

Item #9—Discussion and take possible action on Seymour Pink Day 2013
Proclamation read:
WHEREAS, The Board of Selectmen of the Town of Seymour proclaim Wednesday, October 16, 2013, as “SEYMOUR PINK DAY”.

WHEREAS, According to the most recent data, the incidence of female breast cancer in the State of Connecticut is the highest in the nation as the incidence rate for every 100,000 women is 136, while nationally the rate is 121 per 100,000.

WHEREAS, Komen Connecticut in 2011 developed three priorities that Seymour Pink Inc.’s mission is in line with, especially Priority 2, as follows:
Priority 1: Strengthen and build the capacity of existing breast health providers to identify, provide, and or refer patients to appropriate breast health and breast cancer programs and services in cities and towns demonstrating the highest burden of breast cancer morbidity and mortality.
Priority 2: Promote breast health awareness and the importance of screening and early detection among women across the state.
Priority 3: Increase screening resources available to women in selected cities and towns with an emphasis on high risk women, underserved women and selected women under the age of 40.

WHEREAS, October has been designated National Breast Cancer Awareness Month. The goal of such a designation is to bring more awareness and education about this disease to the public. The name of our Town gives us a unique advantage in helping increase awareness of breast cancer.

THEREFORE, by proclaiming Wednesday, October 16, 2013 as “SEYMOUR PINK DAY”, the Town of Seymour will be helping the community raise awareness and asks that the residents of the Town of Seymour think pink, wear pink, and decorate pink to support the fight for a cure for breast cancer.

Dated this 5th day of March, 2013 at Seymour, Connecticut

By First Selectman W. Kurt Miller and the Seymour Board of Selectmen
