Discussion followed relative to another change as a result of a disparagry created in loss of accrued benefits for employees working 32 hours up to 39 hours. He commented that the hourly accrual should be .125 per hour worked. He stated that this would provide that three current employees would not loose time granted in the old policy. Discussion also followed and Lisa Sanchez and Brittany Hannon commented that the new personnel policy removes holiday pay and longevity pay for employees working between 32 and 39 hours.
