Librarian's Report:

Building maintenance: Loreen Coe spoke with Dee Caruso approximately a week and a half ago regarding the Library Board's letter to the First Selectman. Dee said a list is being compiled to be sent to the state, including the masonry work and a/c unit for the library. The town is requesting LOCIP funds for these projects. Grant money will be used to replace the attic windows with vents and louvers. She said there is no need for the Library Board to appear before the Board of Selectman. She is awaiting one estimate and will be submitting the list within a week, and she will then send the Library Board a copy. Carol added that another estimate for the masonry work came in so there are now two. One was for approx. $16,000, and one was for approx. $10,000. The decision was also made that the a/c unit will be replaced with a combination heating and cooling unit. There will also need to be repairs to the roof/platform under the present unit, however, as water leaks into the children's DVD section when the a/c unit is used. Public works will have 2 carpenters complete the fascia repairs.

Insulation: Carol said that Tom Wallace, Joe Deegan, Paul Roy and Roger Foster have been working consistently on this issue and they even came and cleaned the attic. The insulation is approximately half done and should be complete by May 21st or 22nd.

Budget matters: The town is voting on the budget today and the proposed library budget did not change.

Programming: This Saturday Mr. Tido Holtkamp will deliver a talk about the his years as a German soldier aboard a WWII warship and his subsequent reunion with the History of the Coast Guard Barque Eagle that began its life with the U.S. Coast Guard as a war prize. The Eagle has gone on to be the training ship for Coast Guard cadets and has sailed all over the world on good will missions.

A motion was made by Steve Kulas to amend the FY12-13 endowment budget with $11,499 to be added to the FY 2012/13 endowment budget as noted in the proposal; second by Pauline Lounsbury.
