Review of the Treasurers Report for May:
Motion to accept: Harvey Eckhardt; Second: Tom Schutte. Approved: 5:0:0

Director’s Report:
Personnel: Paulina Karwowski was hired to replace Dakota Meiers.
Outreach: Suzanne visited Callahan House, Seymour Assisted Living, and the Ray House to see about starting a book club and if the patrons would like a homebound delivery program. The Homebound Delivery is a definite. A book club might be started at Seymour Assisted Living.
Founder's Day: The day was a success. The raffle of books was a great idea and patrons got involved.
Adult Programming: There was an evening program on the Titanic on Wednesday May 27th and Art Gottlieb spoke, the feedback was amazing.
Adult Programming Grant: Suzanne applied for this grant in March and was approved. The grant is for classes that will offer lifelong learning opportunities and the chance to learn new skills while encouraging individuality and creativity in a supportive environment.
