Workshop – Downtown Forum follow-up.

The Planning Board discussed various goals for the downtown as they were expressed by the results of the Downtown Forum held on January 30th.

Some of these included: maintaining livable scale and a sense of the river, flexibility, encouraging “activity” downtown, not making redevelopment downtown so expensive that it is not economically feasible.

The Board asked to have a meeting with the City’s economic development committee. The Board also wanted to explore “planned-unit-development” regulations.

Meeting adjourned at 7:40 p.m.

Minutes prepared by Jim Upham, Planning Director.
