3. On Sunday, March 11, 2012 families from Chatfield and LoPresti attended the Bridgeport Sound Tigers game. This event was sponsored by the PTA. 289 people from Chatfield and LoPresti attended the event – the biggest turnout ever. Over 100 kids who had read 10 or more books during the Winter Reading Challenge attended on a complimentary ticket. Chatfield students read a total of 4,934 books (134 students reading 10 or more books) and LoPresti students read a total of 6,051 books (152 students reading 10 or more books). Congratulations to all of our readers!
4. Congratulations to the Seymour High School Cheerleading team on placing second in the Connecticut state championship and good luck to the team as they travel to Lawrence, Massachusetts to compete in the regional championship on March 17, 2012. Mrs. Magri noted they won first place in their following competition held in Lawrence, MA.
5. Congratulations to Kyle Bennett, Daniel Robinson, Nicholas Lifrieri, Justin Fabozzi, Farian Rabbani, and Corey Marchetti, Middle School students who raised money for Special Olympics by participating in the Penguin Plunge on March 11. Their team name was Kyle's Cougars! Together, the students collected money from neighbors, family, friends, Stop and Shop patrons, Dunkin Donuts patrons and some of their former teachers at Bungay and Lopresti Schools. They spent countless hours raising money for a great cause. The total they raised this year was over $2500.
6. Congratulations to Bungay School students Samantha Kowal, Alex Ferreira, David Campbell, Patricia Jurkowski, and Mackenzie Caines for being selected to attend the Connecticut Association of Schools Marine Science Day on May 16, 2012.

III) PUBLIC COMMENT

Mr. Richard Rossik, 34 Roberts Street, Seymour, asked if an investigation is going to take place regarding the recent Chlorine spill at Seymour High School. Chairman Putorti informed Mr. Rossik there would be an investigation. Sandy Valente, 11 Evergreen Terrace, Seymour (Chatfield School parent) read a prepared letter to the BOE concerning the change in the start and end time of Chatfield School hours for the 2012-2013 school year. Ms. Valente also expressed her unhappiness and frustration that Chatfield parents were not included in this decision. Chatfield parents Lynn Heintz, 53 Briarwood Drive, Kathy Gardecki, 60 Briarwood Drive, Steve Bachelor, 113 Skokorat Street, also expressed their concerns and frustrations about the change in the Chatfield school hours for the 2012-2013 school year, the fact the children cannot use the sand boxes at Chatfield, and that the front door to Chatfield School is not locked and there is no security guard at the door. Kathy Gardecki noted she has brought all of these issues to Principal Olechna's attention. Mr. Bachelor asked what research has been conducted showing a later start time would benefit the elementary school children. Tony Bunosso, 42 Birchwood Road inquired if the parents of LoPresti have been notified of the new start and end times at Chatfield for the school year 2012-2013. Ms. Mascolo will notify LoPresti parent of this change.
