Old Business:

- Commissioner Rochelle stated that the toilet was fixed at Citizens.
- Commissioner Rochelle asked Chairman Atkas about there being money for the doors. Chairman Atkas said a grant is being looked into for the windows and doors.
- Asst. Chief Smith stated that the NIMS class is on hold until they hear from the State regarding funding.
- Chief Tomasheski mentioned the tremendous amount of work the Clerk is handling working part time hours and he feels that the Fire Marshal Reports should be turned over to the Fire Marshal's Office to handle. Chairman Atkas feels that it is a good idea but said that is should be discussed with the Fire Marshal at next month's meeting. Chief Tomasheski stated that he should find out next Tuesday if the Clerk can work more hours.
- Commissioner Motasky met with the insurance adjustor regarding the damaged windows. He is not sure what the insurance company will come back with because he was told the contents are not covered, only the building is.
- Chief Tomasheski has not heard from CNS regarding Rescue 17.

New Business:

- Chairman Atkas stated that the position for Chief and Assistant Chief should be posted in both firehouses and everyone's resumes should be returned.
