8. Management Report:

Chief Metzler stated that all transfers were voted on and approved. The supernumerary account might go over a bit but everything else is good.

In the income account, we are $13,000 over what was projected.

Chief also stated that there is $22,000 left in the seizure fund and $7,800 in the Community Fund but that amount will change due to a check that will be returned.

There was an emergency repair done to the air conditioner in the computer room and we went with a company who came in with a lower bid to do the work.

9. Correspondence:

Chairwoman McConologue stated there were two nice letters received thanking our officers and it is always nice to receive letters like this.
