Strand Theater Report: None

Chairman Simpson reported to the Commission that the new ticket booth window had been installed. Another letter will be sent to First Selectman Roy requested assistance from The Public Works Dept. for removal of large items and shelving and minor maintenance to the inside of the Theater.

Kim Osgood and Priscilla Altorelli reported that they had walked the Theater with the owner of Ultimate Cleaning Service, who will begin the weekly cleaning of the Theater starting Monday October 18, 2010. The cost will be $70.00 per week. They will provide their own cleaning materials and be responsible for trash removal.

Chairman Simpson reported that the Theater would be used on October 26, 2010 for a ceremony which will honor Veterans; State official will be in attendance.

Kim Osgood had suggested that movie posters be available for sale at the weekly auctions held by Phil Orazetti's. She will ask him if he would auction them and what prices he would suggest.
