Pledge of Allegiance

Meeting called to order at 7:00 PM by Chairman Joe LaRovera

Public Comment: None

Correspondence: None

Approval of Minutes: The minutes were approved with the removal of Old Business C, second sentence.

Treasurers Report: Approved

Directors Report/Trips and Travel:

- All current programs are still running with no issues: Karate, Yoga, and Adult Tennis, Pre-School Sports, and Senior Lite Exercise.
- Pop-Warner cheerleading is still utilizing the gym in the evenings.
- Basketball Registrations occurred 10/6 – 10/14. Late signups will be allowed up until 10/23. The numbers are down slightly; there should be enough for the program to run at each level.
- Missy is looking for help with Basketball Showcases.
- Will be hiring a second site person for the basketball program.
- Need more scorekeepers and referees (must be 16+ for the position).

Old Business:

- Community Center floor was completed by All State Flooring
- A discussion was started on Travel Basketball whether it is considered a Recreation or Town Program. The discussion was tabled until next month so that Missy can be present.

New Business:

- Chairman plans on meeting with First Selectman to discuss the direction of the Recreation Department, the Boys and Girls Club, and other future programming.

Motion to adjourned: 7:56 PM

Motion: Glen Green

Second: Janice Keough

Respectfully Submitted: Alex LaRovera
