Public Comment

John Murphy, 385 Greystone Road, stated the Town Council had done a wonderful job.

Amy Radke stated she had never in her wildest dreams did she believe the Town Council would do that to the Board of Education portion of the budget and briefly gave her reasoning and implored the Council to reallocate the $200,000 back, noting it would decimate the Board of Education if the Council didn't.

Chet Scoville, noting he was Chairman of the Police Commission, questioned why the Police Chief, Karen Krasicky, was not brought up for a raise, noting the Assistant Chief received one and most if not all of the Department Heads. Chet Scoville requested an explanation, noting it wasn't about the money; it was the principle when everyone else got a raise across the board.

Chet Scoville stated if Amy Radke felt the reduction in the Board of Education's Budget would affect it that much then he wouldn't mind paying more taxes and briefly explained his reasoning, noting the Town was going backwards, not forward.

Wayne Waldron stated for the future students it would be devastating and the reduction of $200,000 would be a major problem. He further asked the Town Council to please reconsider their decision.

Public Comment Cont'd.

Melissa Kremmel stated the majority of Public speaking this evening had asked the Council to keep the Board of Education's Budget intact, and asked the Council to please put the $200,000 back in the Budget.

Melanie Church stated she wanted to commend the Town Council for cutting the budget and this was what the taxpayers had asked for and it was a fair budget.

Cathy Kosak stated she would like to recommend taking $100,000 from the Fund Balance and put it towards the Board of Education's budget.

Cathy Kosak questioned if the Police Chief's raise wasn't in the Contract and also wasn't she part of the Department Heads and wasn't it required in the contract that she receive a 1.5 percent raise like everyone else.

Jeannette Broder stated she would gladly pay more in taxes if the Council would put more money into the Board of Education's Budget and hoped the Town Council would reconsider for the sake of the children and the Town's future.

Erica Nodine Cabiya stated she was very disappointed with the Council's decision to cut the Board of Education's Budget, noting she thought the Council had more open minds and hearts. She further stated that she thought it was time to look at the Charter again and decide if it should be an option to separate the Education Budget from the Town Budget.

Linda Kazmierski, 20 Joseph Street, Terryville, stated she had gone through the school system herself and worked for it and unless you worked in it you don't what's going on. She further stated if the Council didn't renew the Budget they would be hurting the Town and briefly elaborated on her feelings

Raynell Covello stated she was very disappointed and wished the Council had heard and listened to the Public this evening, noting it was very sad.

Mayor Merchant stated it was difficult to put a budget together and noted the Board of Finance members had been working two nights a week since February. He further stated that it was hard to make everyone happy. Mayor Merchant stated he didn't know what the 80 percent of the people who didn't vote actually wanted; noting only a small amount of people came out to vote. He further stated he wanted the Town to move forward and not take baby steps backwards. Mayor Merchant stated the Board of Finance members had a difficult time trying to balance the Budget and the Town Council had a difficult task to do, as well, noting they did what they thought was best for everyone.

Public Comment Cont'd.

Mayor Merchant stated when the Council takes a vote this evening it would be to adopt the 1.03% increase Budget and questioned if everyone on the Council was sure of what they wanted to do. He further stated if the Council did not want to rush into a decision this evening he did not have a problem coming back another night to get the Budget as correct as possible. He further stated the Council could also go ahead and adopt the Budget this evening.

Dan Gentile, Mount Tobe Road, Plymouth, stated the Town has a “what have you done for me lately” attitude, noting that the Board of Education had worked hard for numerous years and had kept their portion of the Budget very minimal. Dan Gentile request the Council make motion to table adopting a Budget this evening and to think about it longer and briefly explained his reasoning. Dan Gentile stated that Town Councilman Heering had previously stated it would stay at 3 percent and now it has changed.

Town Councilman Pajeski questioned what would adding the $200,000 back into the Board of Education’s Budget would do to the mill rate. Ann Marie Rheault stated if the $200,000 were put back in the mill rate increase would go to .8

Town Councilwoman Murawski stated most of the Council had gone to the Board of Finance for months and listened to their discussions, noting that Tom, Bill and Ann Marie had put a lot of work into it. She further stated that it does what she thought the people wanted the Town to do, which was not as large an increase that had come to them the first time and this was the best the Council could do.

Town Councilman Wyszynski stated he had run on a platform to drop the mill rate and lower taxes. He further stated he wasn’t happy about paying a lot of taxes in Town, but that the kids should come first and if we need to pay more taxes for children he believed in that, he didn’t believe in cuts in or out of the Town Hall. Town Councilman Wyszynski stated that Plymouth was a nice quaint little Town and that’s the price we pay to live here.

Town Councilman Zagurski stated he did not have any comment at this time.

Town Councilman Pajeski stated he did not have any comment at this time.

Town Councilman Heering stated he did not have any comment at this time.

Town Councilwoman Murawski made a motion, seconded by Town Councilman Zagurski, to adopt a Budget of $39,435,664, which is a 1.03% increase with the Departmental percentages as previously outlined by Ann Marie Rheault (Interim Director of Finance). Vote: Town Councilman Wyszynski/no; Town Councilwoman Murawski/yes; Town Councilman Zagurski/yes; Town Councilman Pajeski/yes, Town Councilman Heering/yes. Motion passed.
