Dear Friends and Business Leaders,

It is with great pleasure that The Everett, Inc. announces a unique weekend adventure that will entertain, educate and enlighten. The Everett Theatre and Gilbert W. Perry, Jr. Center for the Arts will host A Weekend to Remember, May 4-6 featuring the works of Gibby Perry, including his impressive 15'x10' Titanic Grand Staircase mural. In addition, the private White Star Line collection of David Cooper and the White Star Line artwork of Larry Anderson will be on display.

The gala on May 4 will include entertainment, cocktail reception, unveiling of the mural, dinner reminiscent of the Titanic splendor, silent and live auctions, and the exhibit, Gibby Perry's Titanic Connection.

The arts are important to the strength and growth of the community they serve, providing benefits for both the local economy and each participating individual. Throughout the years, The Everett Theatre and the Gibby Center have been instrumental in contributing to the Middletown, Odessa and Townsend communities.

The proceeds from this event will help with programming, classes, special events, technical upgrades, and capital and operational costs.

We would be honored to have you on board for this grand event. The support opportunities include sponsorship, advertising in the event program, and contributing auction items or gift certificates.

Your Captains,

Rick Pulling & Carolyn Stanley
